

Unit 2-B Commandments 1-3

True or False:

1. The Ten Commandments are really a contract or "covenant" between God and Israel (that is, believers). True/False
2. God gave us only TEN Commandments. True/False
3. In the original Hebrew language, the Ten Commandments are not commands. True/False
4. For some Christians, the Second Commandment and Third Commandment are the same. True/False
5. We should "fear, love and respect" God. True/False

Multiple Choice:

6. Because they were so important, The Ten Commandments were kept safely in:
 - a) A Bank
 - b) They were not kept in a safe place
 - c) The Ark of the Covenant
 - d) The watch of two guardian angels
7. God's most important concern in giving the Ten Commandments is that:
 - a) We behave ourselves most of the time
 - b) We don't hurt others
 - c) We fear and love Him above all else
 - d) We can recite Luther's meanings for the Ten Commandments
8. The Second Commandment:
 - a) Urges holy prayer
 - b) Prohibits unholy prayers such as cursing and Satan prayers
 - c) Tells us not to use God's name to deceive others
 - d) All of the above
9. The commandment which urges us to read God's Word often is:
 - a) The First Commandment
 - b) The Second Commandment
 - c) The Third Commandment
 - d) All of the above

Short Answer:

10. According to Commandments 1-3, what do you think God wants from us most?