

Unit 2-C Commandments 4-6

True or False:

1. The first five commandments deal with our relationship with God. The last five deal with our relationship with others. True/False
2. According to Jesus in Matthew 22, the commandments are best summarized by the words, "Love". True/False
3. The Fourth Commandment specifically commands respect for God. True/False
4. As long as you've never murdered anyone, you have not broken the Fifth Commandment. True/False
5. The word "adultery" means "to make dirty." True/False

Multiple Choice:

6. When Luther began each meaning for the Ten Commandments with "We should fear and love God"?:
  - (a) He wanted people to keep the commandments because they loved God
  - (b) He wanted people to keep the commandments because they feared what God could do to unrepentant sinners
  - (c) Both of the above
  - (d) None of the above
7. The Fourth Commandment urges:
  - (a) That we protect life, especially unborn babies
  - (b) That we not curse or swear
  - (c) That we obey all authorities, even those we don't like
  - (d) That if we break it, we should not be too concerned
8. The Fifth Commandment teaches us that "murder" includes:
  - (a) Getting angry at others
  - (b) Hurting someone
  - (c) Withholding proper care from those in need
  - (d) Seeking revenge
  - (e) All of the above
9. The Sixth Commandment teaches us that committing sexual sin is wrong because:
  - (a) Sex, even in marriage, is sinful
  - (b) Our bodies are God's temple and should not be abused or contaminated by sexual sin
  - (c) Sex is never a sin. If it feels good, one should do whatever they want to do
  - (d) None of the above

Short Answer:

10. According to Romans 7:15-8:2, can Christians ever live a completely perfect life? Briefly explain.